Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

THE MARINE CORPS
BUILDS MEN

We've Only Just Begun to live,
White lace and promises
A kiss for luck and we're on our way.
And yes, We've just begun.

Sharing horizons that are new to us,
Watching the signs along the way,
Talking it over just the two of us,
Working together day to day—together.

Before the rising sun we fly,
So many roads to choose
We start out walking and learn to run.
And yes, We've Just Begun.

And when the evening comes we smile,
So much of life ahead
We'll find a place where there's room to grow,
And yes, We've Just Begun.

Raymond A. Sullivan

Headmaster

Ecology. Encounter groups. Lunar module. These terms have become common in our everyday language since the class of '71 entered high school in 1967. The words represent examples of how fast the world around us is changing, and how quickly we can expect it to change in the years to come.

As you leave Lowell High for destinations known and unknown, you'll find that your education never ends, that learning is an ongoing thing, like breathing. The job you hold 10 years from now will quite likely require knowledge you do not now possess.

Your continued learning and understanding of our world is important; and it now becomes your responsibility, not the school's. Here at Lowell High, you've only just begun. Now you're on your own. Our best wishes and hopes go with you.

Helen Shea

Possessed of the human qualities of thoughtfulness and kindness, she was a teacher in the true sense of the word. Quietly and conscientiously she went about her work, always willing to expend her time and energy with sincerity and interest for any of her students. She left all who came within her scope a priceless heritage—the gift of self-expression.

A high school is a complex organization. These are some of the people who keep Lowell High running smoothly.

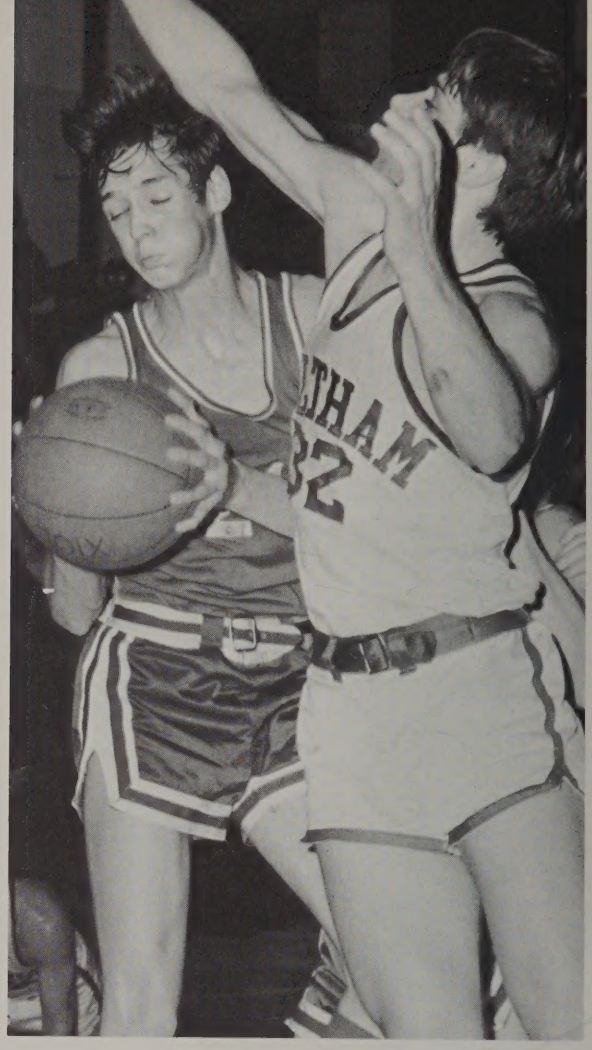
Basketball



The LHS Basketball Team, under the direction of Coach Mike Crowley and Assistant Coaches Joe McNiff and Charles Ryan, finished its 70-71 season with a 9-11 record, placing them second in the Essex County League.

Bill Bailey, Steve Bilby, Kevin Crocker, Nick Karangioze, Jim Martin, and Roy Morgan all played outstanding ball. All but Crocker and Morgan return next year, so the future looks bright for LHS basketball.

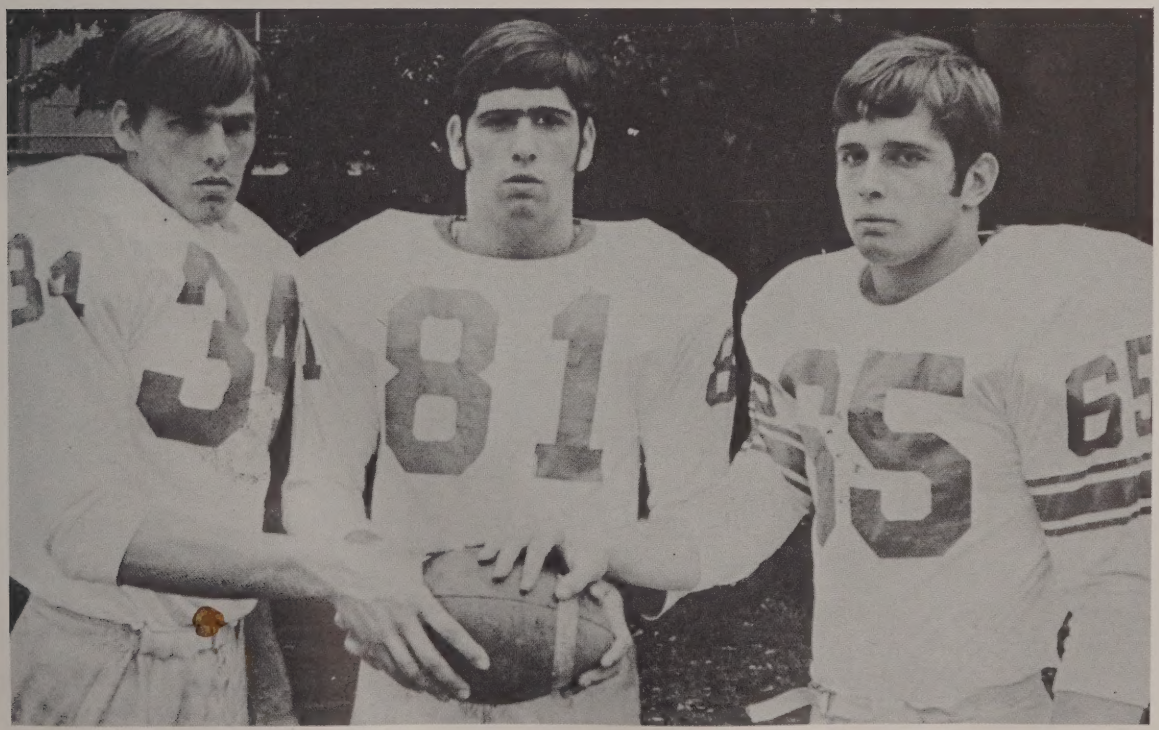
Football

The 1970 football season saw the Lowell Red Raiders, under the direction of Head Coach Ray Riddick, compile a perfect 9-0 slate.

The platoon system was used to provide a well balanced team, and was an important factor in the successful season.

The team shared the Class A Championship with Quincy and was rewarded with a trip to Bermuda in March.



1970 Tri-Captains Kevin Crocker, Brian Donnelly, and Dave Kiloski.

The Girl Officers Battalion, which originated in 1896, is an organization of senior girls selected at the end of their junior year from among academically qualified students in a competition involving various drills, dancing, and marching tactics. Not only do the seventy-two girls help in the gym classes, but they also give of their spare time to serve the community as ushers and solicitors for many local, civic and charitable organizations.

The Spindle staff is composed of volunteers from the junior and senior classes who do the 1,001 tasks required to bring you the book you now hold in your hands.

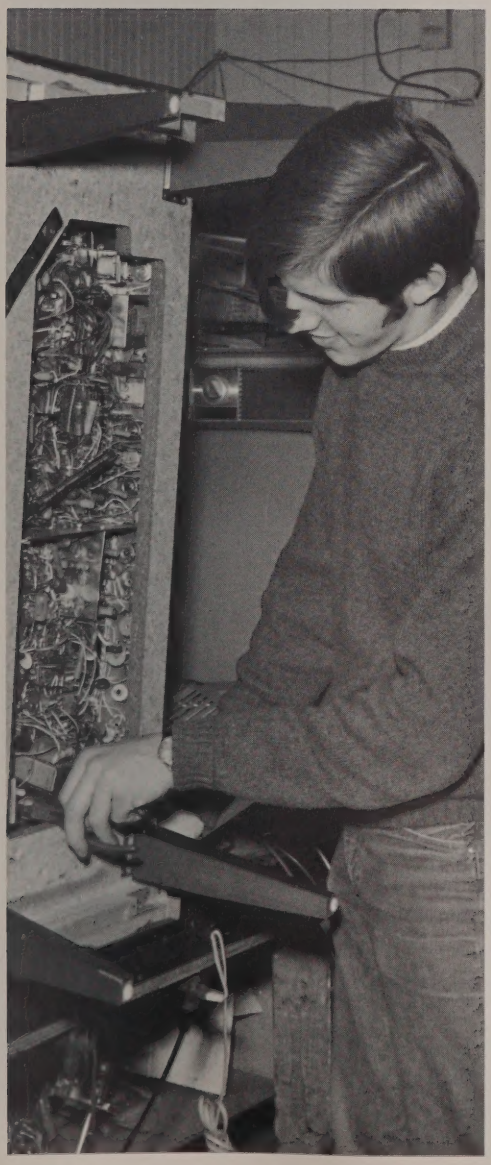
This program, begun by Mr. Christopher Mitchell, serves the community, the employer, and the student by training the student to work in areas where the need is critical. It also encourages industry by training students for work on a more permanent basis. The two hundred students operating in the program this year are proof of the program's success.



The staff of Room 100 handles monetary matters and lost and found at LHS.

The Personnel Department produces the mountain of printed material that is needed daily to keep the school functioning smoothly.

Distributive Education

The Distributive Education program at LHS, directed by Miss Claire A. Quigley, encourages students to enter marketing and distribution as a career, providing a curriculum that combines classroom instruction with on-the-job experience.

This year, the class was awarded 11 contest prizes at the DECA Leadership Conference in Boston.

Those were the days, my friend
We thought they'd never end,
We'd sing and dance forever and a day;
We'd live the life we choose,
We'd fight and never lose,
For we were young and sure to have our way.
Those were the days,
Oh yes, those were the days.
